Admiral Arthur W. Radford
Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Radford:

I should like to take this opportunity to commend Captain John D. Bulkeley, USN, of the Joint Subsidiary Activities Division for his admirable handling of the military side of a joint Agency-Military briefing program recently conducted by us for the benefit of senior military personnel.

His comprehension of the objectives and his desire to cooperate resulted in a group of some forty military officers attending the briefing. But more significant than the number was the quality of officer and military scope represented. These fine officers represented the unified commands, the departmental headquarters, your own Joint Staff, and senior service colleges.

We are convinced that this program is of great mutual benefit. Through the untiring efforts of Captain Bulkeley, this 1956 annual briefing was the most successful to date.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
